BY-LAWS OF THE EASTERN MICHIGAN FAIR

LAPEER COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY - Imlay City, Michigan Adopted at the Annual Meeting October 10, 1963

The name of this Society shall be "The Lapeer County Agricultural Society," Imlay City, Michigan, sponsors of the Eastern Michigan Fair, an Educational, Agricultural and Industrial Exposition, organized under the laws of the State of Michigan.

SECTION I – BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

This Society shall have nine (9) Directors who shall constitute a Board of Management of the Society.

SECTION II – TERMS OF OFFICE

At the annual meeting of the Society there shall be elected from the membership three (3) Directors for a term of (3) years and three (3) Directors each year thereafter for the same term. The term of office of all Directors shall commence on the first day of November, except the Directors first elected shall take office immediately.

SECTION III – ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Directors shall be elected by secret ballot at the annual meeting of the Society. Only one nomination will be allowed each member and there must be at least two nominations for each position to be filled.

SECTION IV – ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Society shall be held in Imlay City on the 3rd Wednesday of October at 7:00 PM. Special meetings may be called by the President at any time and shall be called by him upon written request of five (5) members of the Society. Notice of such special meeting shall be published in a newspaper, printed, published, and circulating in the County of Lapeer at least once and at least five days before the date of said meeting. Such special meeting shall transact only such business as is specified in the notice thereof.

SECTION V – QUORUM

- (a) Quorum of Members. A quorum shall be defined as those members in attendance at a regularly scheduled meeting providing notice of said meeting is given 30 days prior to the meeting. This definition shall apply to the annual meeting and special meetings of the Society.
- (b) Quorum of Directors. A majority of the directors shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION VI – DUTIES OF BOARD OF MANAGEMENT

- (a) The Board of Management shall control and regulate all the affairs of the society, make or authorize to be made all necessary contracts, purchases and expenditures, engage, direct and discharge employees and servants, including a Manager to whom they may delegate authority and duties, enforce all Bylaws and Rules, and shall have such other and further powers as are usually inherent to a Board of Management and as may be provided for in the Bylaws and Articles of Incorporation.
- (b) The Board of Management shall have full control of all fairs and exhibitors, the determination of the scope or extent thereof. The awarding of premiums, the making of suitable rules and regulation, the appointments of department superintendents, and all committees and subagents for the proper and efficient conduct thereof. The said Board of Management shall have the power to determine where the place of various exhibits or demonstration, or entered by premiums, or in contest, or as concessions or amusement, and may enlarge, change or diminish the space allotted any person or persons at any time as it may deem proper advisable.

The Board of Management shall hold regular monthly meetings. At the regular meeting in November the Board of Management shall elect from their own number a President, a Vice President, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The term of such offices shall be for one (1) year or until their successors are elected and qualified.

- (a) Special meetings of the Board of Management may be called by the President at any time and shall be called by him upon the written request of two or more members thereof.
- (b) The Board of Management shall have power to adopt such rules for the conduct of the Society and its members as it may from time to time deem necessary, provided such rules are not inconsistent with these Bylaws.
- (c) In the event that a vacancy shall occur on the Board of Management or among its elected officers, or in the event that any member of the board or officer shall, illness, incapacitation, miss three (3) consecutive meetings, or other causes become unable or unwilling to discharge the duties of the office to which he was elected or appointed, then the Board of Directors may declare such office or position vacant and proceed to fill such vacancy by appointment, and the officer or member so appointed shall hold the office until the next succeeding election. Power, authority of duties of such appointee may, however, be limited, restricted or terminated by the Board of Management at any time while such person is serving under appointment.

SECTION VII – DUTIES OF OFFICERS

- (a) The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society and all meetings of the Board of Management shall perform all other duties usually incident to the Board of Management from time to time.
- (b) The Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence or disability of the President.
- (c) The Secretary shall keep a record of all meetings of the Society and meetings of the Board of Management and shall duly account for and pay to the Treasurer all money which may at any time come into his hands belonging to said Society and shall perform all duties customarily incident to the office of the Secretary and such other duties as the Board of Management may assign from time to time.
- (d) The Treasurer shall be charged with the collection and custody of the funds and with their disbursement under the direction of the Board of Management. He shall make a report at every regular meeting showing his receipts and disbursements to the Management. His accounts shall be audited annually and shall be open to the examination of the President and the Board of Management.
- (e) The Manager shall perform all duties customarily incident to the office of the Manager and such other duties as the Board of Management may assign from time to time and shall duly account for and pay to the Treasurer all money which may at any time come into his hands belonging to said Society and shall make a report at every regular meeting.

SECTION VIII – PUBLICATION, BYLAWS AND RULES

A copy of these Bylaws and all rules and regulations made and adopted by the Board of Management for the control and conduct of the annual fair and exhibition shall be published in the annual premium list and catalog of the Society.

SECTION IX – MEMBERSHIP

- (a) Lapeer County Agricultural Society Memberships will be available for purchase until 12:00 Noon the second day of the fair. The price of a $25.00 membership fee will entitle members to vote at the Annual Meeting of that year (and shall entitle the member to vote at all meetings of the Society during their membership). Members must be 18 years of age or older.
- (b) All applications shall be turned over by the Secretary to the Board of Management at the first meeting of said Board succeeding receipt of the application, will be added to the membership of the Society.
- (c) Except for the first meeting of members of the Society following the adopting of these Bylaws, members to be eligible to election to the Board of Management must have been members in good standing for a period of not less than two (2) successive years prior to said election date.
- (d) There shall be obtained, at least ninety (90) days prior to the first annual meeting after the adoption of these Bylaws, a minimum of 50 members and the membership shall be maintained at no less than 50 members, if, initially, 50 members shall not be obtained, or if at any time the membership shall become less than 50, the Society will be operated under Act 80 of 1855.

SECTION X – EXPULSION

- (a) Whenever the conduct or character of any member shall injure, or be likely to injure the welfare, interest or character of the Society he may be expelled there from.
- (b) The Board of Management of its own motion may, upon the complaint in writing of three (3) members, enter a resolution upon its records for the Investigation of charges against any member which shall specify the charges and fix a time and place for hearing of the same.
- (c) Elected officers and any member of the Board of Management may be removed from office for cause by the affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present in person at any regular or special meeting of the Society, notice of the proposed action having been mailed to all members and to the affected officer or member of the Board of Management twenty (20) days previous to the meeting, which notice to the affected officer or member of the Board of Management shall contain a statement of the cause of removal to be determined at said meeting. Voting on the question of removal shall be by secret written ballot. Should such office be declared vacant, it shall be filled by the Board of Management at its first regular or special meeting thereafter, and the person appointed shall serve until the successor is elected and qualified. Employees and servants hired by the Board of Management shall not be within the scope of this section (c).

SECTION XI – CONTRACTS

Except as otherwise specified by the Board of Management, all contracts relating to the business of the Society shall be executed in behalf of the Society by the President and Secretary, provided in the event of the absence or disability of the President or Secretary, the Board of Management may authorize the execution of specific contracts by any officer of the Society in the place and stead of the absent or disabled officer.

Rules Governing Entries, Exhibits and Awards

SECTION 1 – GENERAL

1. The Fair Management reserves the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto. It further reserves the right to amend or add to these rules.
2. Disregard of any rules may result in rights and privileges being forfeited without recourse.
3. The management will use diligence to ensure the safety of livestock and articles entered for exhibition or display after their arrival on the grounds but under no circumstances will they be responsible for loss, injury or damage by fire, lightning, wind or by any other agency, to such livestock, or article on exhibition or display and the Fair and management thereof shall be held harmless by the exhibitors against all legal or other proceedings relating thereto.
4. Exhibitors must place all exhibits under the direction of the Fair Management.
5. Exhibitors will be permitted to bring into the grounds only a limited amount of feed, hay or baled straw, and the management reserves the right to refuse admission of such, if in their judgment there is an excessive amount. The pace in the barns and tents is for exhibition purposes and not for storage of feed.
6. In the event of conflict between the general rules and the special rules governing the various departments, the general rules will take precedence.
7. The Fair Management reserves the right to make all final decisions regarding eligibility of all entries registered to participate in the Eastern Michigan State Fair.
